

Supercoat Redfest Racing Riot - Demonstration

Hosted by Redlands Dog Obedience Club

Date: Saturday and Sunday 10-11 September

Venue: Cleveland Showgrounds, situated between Smith and Long Streets, Cleveland. The Main entry is off Long Street.

Entires Close 2 September 2011

Cost: $5 per dog for singles, pairs and recalls. Start Dog Competition, $2 for 2 runs, $4 for 4 runs etc

Please note Demonstration held during Lunch break on Saturday and Sunday will only be able to have dogs entered that are AFA registered, and are not competing in the Regular or Veterans Class competition (so that training in the ring rules are not breached). These runs will not be using the AFA lights. Time permitting the demonstration will continue after the conclusion of the competition.

The demonstration that continues after the conclusion of racing is contingent on time being available, and may include dogs that have raced in the main competition (in regular or veterans classes), and may use the AFA lights. Dogs racing in the regular or veterans class competition that participate in the demonstration after the conclusion of racing will be allowed to race in singles and pairs at no additional cost, but will need to pay to enter the start dog competition.

To enter the Start dog competition your dog should be AFA registered and able to complete a full run. The Start Dog competition will commence at the end of racing on Sunday. Time permitting entries for the start dog competition will be taken on the day (however if time is short priority will be given to dogs that have entered by the 2 September closing date).
